Purchasers of DRY GOODS should bear in mind be great advantages we are able to offer them, as IMPORTERS OF OUR OWN GOODS, we not being tobliged to pay a profit to the importer and jobber, to procure them. It is always a great advantage to the consumer to buy from "first hands." In buying of the mainfact are abroad, we have but one profit to charge our customers andwe can afford to sell at a smaller profit even than the importer who sells by the package, as we are not subject to the risks of the "seller ou time," and our system of low prices and howest cooks have to
